(Special to The Herald.)

New York, July 8.—Miss Addie Silks of Sait Lake is playing at the Casino in "The Runaways."

Miss Addie, whose stage name is Marze, is greatly in fear of the paternal wrath. She confided tonight to The Herald reporter that "papa was something awful wrought up," and that was the reason she had changed her name. Mamma Silks, who aided and abetted her daughter in escaping the European journey that she might become one of the gorgeously gowned comic operaqueens in Fay Templeton's company, also has premonitions.

also has premonitions.

Miss Silks is the daughter of George Miss Silks is the daughter of George W. Silks, a mine operator. When his daughter Addie became afflicted with factlight aspirations he set his foot days and finally packed mother and daughter off to Europe. This happened in April. Mother and daughter arrived here in April, went along the Riskle to take a look at the theatres. alto to take a look at the theatres, strayed into the office of Manager Shubert of "The Runaways," and left with a contract signed by Miss Addie. Papa was told that the voyage had been postponed. He is still waiting for news from the other side. Miss Silks is robust, beautiful and has dimples in her cheeks. Her mother says she has lots of talont and so does Shubert lots of talent and so does Shubert.
The young woman expects to be a great comic opera star shortly and then she feels sure that her father will forgive

CARPENTERS WILL STAY.

Meet and Vote Not to Withdraw From Building Trades Council.

Contrary to recent reports, the carpenters will not withdraw from the Building Trades council and settle the labor difficulty that is tying up work in the city. The Brotherhood of Carpenters held a meeting in Federation hall last night and voted unanimously to remain by the council and fight the trouble out

"We all propose to stand together," Baid one of the union men, "and they cannot fight us."

Among some of the union men there was talk last night to the effect that unless a settlement was effected in a reasonable time the Federation of Labor might be called upon and a general strike ordered among all unions of the city to force a defeat upon the

ACCUSED OF BURGLARY.

G. R. Harman Arrested on Charge of Robbing a Saloon.

Louis Hobein's saloon on State street was broken into by burglars late Tuesday night and cash to the amount of $10 taken from the till. Entrance was effected by cutting out a screen in the rear and unlocking a door. The till was broken open and all the change, amounting to about $10, was stolen.

Sergeant Roberts and Officer Lincoln yesterday arrested G. R. Harman, a painter, who is believed to be guilty of the crime. He was identified as being a man who was hanging around the place during the previous day. It is also known that on Tuesday Harman had no money, and when arrested had several dollars in his possession.
